

AMAZING CASE ADDS OLD-SCHOOL FUN TO THE IPHONE 6

Irwindale, CA – May 26, 2015 - PureGear is excited to offer its hugely popular Amazing Case for the iPhone 6. The clever case puts the fun in fun-ctional by engaging users in a game of wits right on the back of their phone. Amazing Case turns the iPhone 6 into a handheld game where users navigate through twists and turns as they maneuver the ball through a colorful winding maze.

“Mobile gaming is the biggest it has ever been but the entertainment provided by popular apps only lasts as long as your battery does,” says PureGear Brand Director, Christine Manlapeg. “We created Amazing Case for people looking for quick distractions during every day activities. You can play with the maze when you’re stuck in a long line or hand it off to a toddler who may not be ready for Angry Birds yet.”

The cases have a one-piece design that is easy to snap on and off while its sturdy exterior stands tough against every day wear and tear. Amazing Case’s unique design and practical features bring a new twist to modern day protection.

Amazing Case is offered in black/green, blue/yellow and pink/yellow and is currently available on Pure-Gear.com for $34.99.
